

What is it?

A series of conversations with creatives from across the arts. They tell us about their work, inspiration, creative process, communication and much more.

Where can I listen?

On the Junior Cycle Talks podcast channel, wherever you get your podcasts and on our website - www.artsinjuniorcycle.ie/podcasts

Why listen?

The insights and stories that our guests share aim to inspire your creativity and shine a light on the arts and their impact on our lives.

How can I use them with students?

There are a broad range of guests on the podcast. Consider who/what might appeal to your students, share extracts, reflect, create and discuss.
