Get your World Turning

With woodturner Willie Creighton

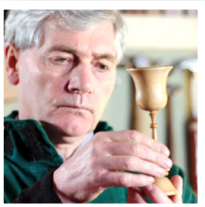

Oide Creativity and Oide Technology Subjects, in collaboration with woodturner Willie Creighton, present a one-day elective workshop, open to post-primary teachers from all subject disciplines.

This practical workshop offers participants an opportunity to:

- experience exciting ways to create wood turned artefacts
- discover the natural properties and aesthetics of wood through the craft
- explore creative woodturning techniques including spindle and faceplate turning
- develop practical and creative approaches that may be used in all classroom practice.
