

Writing Memoir

Can we ever tell our own stories, and are they anything like — or even half as good — as the stories our friends and family tell about us?

Oide Creativity in collaboration with Poetry Ireland and writer Pat Boran, present an online elective workshop series, open to all teachers.

The series consists of four workshops, offering participants an opportunity to:

- experience practical, creative and enjoyable approaches to writing memoir
- discuss and share stories in a safe, supportive online space
- reflect on how workshop methodologies may support professional classroom practice, including for Classroom-Based Assessments and personal writing.

Date	Times	Venue
Wednesdays 10 th , 17 th , 24 th April and 1 st May 2024	7:30 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.	Online via Zoom

Please Note: This workshop is a repeat of our Autumn 2023 Writing Memoir workshop series. Previous participants are welcome to register.

Pat Boran is a poet, writer and maker of short films with some 20 books to his name, among them a popular writing handbook and a humorous memoir of growing up in the Irish midlands, The Invisible Prison: Scenes from an Irish Childhood (2009). He is the recipient of many awards for his books and films and is a member of Aosdána, the affiliation of creative artists in Ireland.
